WINERY Arrayán

Albillo de Arrayán Granito

GRAPE: Garnacha

WINE EXPERTS

Fruit is sourced from Old vineyards of Cebreros, located in the Gredos mountains, in the province of Ávila. It is one of the oldest wine-producing regions in Spain, situated at 700 M altitude and has granitic soils. Both the soil and the altitude contribute to producing very concentrated fruit with a strong personality, which give this wine a pronounced mineral character.
