WINERY: Arrayán

Arrayán Rose

GRAPE: Syrah, Merlot, Garnacha Peluda

WINE EXPERTS

A fresh rosé made from Merlot and Garnacha Peluda, a strain of the Garnacha variety that has lower alcohol and higher acidity. The wine shows a nose of red berries and dry straw, denoting a Mediterranean vintage. It has ripe and expressive flavors. A powerful rosé intended to be enjoyed alongside the finest foods. Only 812 bottles were filled in February 2021

WINEMAKER'S TASTING NOTES

Strawberry pink colour with medium extraction. Aromas of red fruits, cherries and white flowers dominate. Rich, full-bodied with a strikingly fresh feel to the finish.
