

FRANCE

WINERY: Anne Pichon

Sauvage Grenache Noir Vieilles Vignes

GRAPE: Grenache

WINE EXPERTS

Anne Pichon's Vieilles Vignes Grenache Noir, harvested at the pinnacle of ripeness, reveals an impressive depth and concentration. Its bold black-fruit character unfolds gracefully, unveiling layers of cocoa, sweet chocolate, and alluring licorice. This cuvée, produced organically, embodies remarkable power and complexity, with notes of black cherry, blackberry, blackcurrant, and a seductive blend of cocoa, sweet chocolate, and licorice.

Tradewinds

WINEMAKER'S TASTING NOTES

Anne Pichon harvests her Vieilles Vignes Grenache Noir late, giving the wine excellent ripeness and dense concentration. Its powerful black-fruit flavors give way to intricacies of cocoa, sweet chocolate, and licorice. The grenache vieilles vignes is harvested late at an optimal ripeness. This cuvee is very concentrated and powerful with notes of black cherry, blackberry, blackcurrant, cocoa, sweet chocolate and licorice.

More info

TRADEWINDS

